

SAM BAILEY

Sam was drafted in 1946 in the 27th round by the Philadelphia Eagles out of the University of Georgia. But he ended up playing E in 7 games for the Boston Yanks in 1946 and 7 games for the Boston Yanks in 1947. They played their home games at Braves Field and later would become the New England Patriots.

In 1948 and 1949 he played for several teams in several leagues including 1 game for the Detroit Lions and many with various semi-pro teams including the N.Y. Long Islanders, Erie Vets, Richmond Rebels, and New Haven.

One year he played three games in three leagues in three nights: the N.Y. Long Islanders on Saturday, the Boston Yanks on Sunday, and a team in New Haven on Monday!
