AWARDS, FACTS, HIGHLIGHTS, AND HONORS

Fort Myers sets records for most points (318), highest scoring average (31.8), and touchdowns (48). These marks lasted until the 1990's.

The team established the record for most passing yards (868) which would stand up 25 seasons until 1971. The team also established marks for interceptions made (20) and tied the record for interceptions in a game (5) vs Arcadia. The 1984 team broke the season interceptions record with 23.

Quill Jones tied the single game interception record with 3 against Clearwater.

Jack Wells snared 24 catches and set the season receiving yardage record of 631 YDS and caught 5 TD passes which would be the record until 1948.

J.R. Renfroe becomes the 3rd back to go over 1000 YDS in a season. He also had seven 100 yards games rushing in 1946. His 240 yards vs. Clearwater would be the record until Jerry Chard's 271 vs Belle Glade 12 years later.
