AWARDS, FACTS, HIGHLIGHTS, AND HONORS

This was the 1st of 2 seasons that Fort Myers competed in the Eastern Division of the Western Conference.

Ranked 5th in the State Poll.

This team established the single season rushing record (2733 yds) which would last 31 years until 1991, and the single game rushing record (442 yds vs Sarasota- Riverview) which would last 27 years until 1987 vs Port Charlotte. The team also scored 37 rushing TDS.

George D'Alessandro became the career rushing leader with 2695 YDS and held the mark until Clyde

Allen had rushed for 3649 YDS after the 1989 season. George also set records for career (447) and season (158) rushing attempts. Both of these marks would last over 20 years. He had 10-100 yards games and became the 5th Greenie back to surpass 1000 yards rushing in a season.
