Fort Myers was placed in AA-District 6. This was the first year that the state used districts to determine the football playoffs.

This was the first season that Fort Myers played a Lee County opponent, as it established local rivalries with Cypress Lake (W 27-0) and North Fort Myers (W 40-0).

Fort Myers won the first Bud Black Trophy recognizing the County Football Champion. Bud Black was a local Air Force Recruiter and great sports fan who was killed in Vietnam. The trophy was donated by Al Gallman Pontiac.
