AWARDS, FACTS, HIGHLIGHTS, AND HONORS

Defeats Cypress Lake for Fort Myers' 400th Football Victory!

Bernard Edwards and Eugene Leath became the most prolific pass catching duo in Fort Myers history. The two caught 64 passes for 852 YDS and 12 TDS. Bernard Edwards caught 42 passes, 2nd highest single season total in Greenie history (Powell-43-1972), and 4th most in the state of Florida in 1985. He caught 7 passes against North Fort Myers and Riverdale and caught at least 1 pass in all 9 games.

Bernard Edwards and Eugene Leath also led the defense with 2 interceptions each.

Mike McQuagge established a new record for most TD passes in a season (14) and most TD passes in a career (22). He also set a new mark for career completion percentage (.494). He ranked second in season completions (80), season YDS (1004) and became only the 2nd QB to reach 1000 YDS in a season he finished second in season completion percentage (.519), career completions (126), career YDS (1728), and placed third in season attempts (154) and career attempts (255). He threw a TD in 5 consecutive games in 1985 and became the 2nd greenie QB to throw 3 TDS in 2 different games (Riverdale and Cypress Lake) (Priest 1929).

Finished 2nd to North Fort Myers in the County, Conference, and District.

David Giunta threw for an opponent's record 267 YDS in a losing effort for Stuart-Martin County.
