AWARDS, FACTS, HIGHLIGHTS, AND HONORS

Were the District AAAA-12 and Lee County Champions

Lost double overtime regional playoff game to Bradenton-Southeast 24-21.

Were Ranked 6th in the State Poll.

Against Port Charlotte in the season opener, the Greenies established 2 school records: most rushing yards in a game (495) and total offense in a game (515)

Robbie Baker became 3rd Greenie to be named the News Press SW-Florida Player-of-the-Year. (Peres 1970 and Brooks 1975). He was also named to play in the Florida-Georgia All-Star Game.

Leon Fowler was named to play in the Florida-Georgia All-Star Game. After leading the team in receiving as a Junior, Leon led the team in passing as a senior and tied a school record by returning two interceptions for TDS, while also leading the team in that category with 5. He finished 2nd in Touchdowns (6) and 3rd in rushing (297 YDS).

Junior Clyde Allen became the 3rd Running back to have 2-1000 YDS season, (Renfroe 39 & 40, Timmons 74 & 75) while rushing for 1122 YDS and 12 TDS. Clyde became the 1st back in Greenie history to have 2-200 YD games (213-Stuart-Martin County 1986 and 205-Cypress Lake 1987), he rushed for over 100 YDS 4 times, raising his career total to 10, and against Port Charlotte tied the school record for the longest run as he raced 95 yards for a TD (Randall vs Bartow 1936 and Doyle vs Cypress lake 1970).

The defense tied a school record with 5 defensive TDS.
